

Dr. Helen Caldicott

will speak, admission free, on

Nuclear Weapons:

Can They Be

Abolished?

at 2 p.m. Saturday,

August 13, 2016,

in the San Francisco Main Public Library,

100 Larkin St. (at Grove St.), Koret Auditorium, on library's lower level.

Enter on Grove; go downstairs. Near west end of Civic Center BART/Muni station.

---

Though obligated to disarm under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, the U.S. is devising new nuclear weapons for a trillion dollars while the Pentagon plans ways to use them. What to do? Hear the foremost authority on atomic perils, an Australian physician & author whose mobilizing of doctors of the world culminated in the 1985 Nobel Peace Prize to International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War. Books by Dr. Caldicott will be offered for sale.

---

Cosponsored by SF Public Library (BST Dept) & Coalition for Nuclear Disarmament, including: War and Law League (WALL); American Friends Service Committee; Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists, Peace and Justice; Code Pink; East Bay Peace Action; Ecumenical Peace Institute/ CALC; Mt. Diablo Peace and Justice; Physicians for Social Responsibility, SF Bay Area Chapter; Shomer Shalom Network for Jewish Nonviolence; Tri-Valley CAREs; Veterans for Peace, Chapter 69; Western States Legal Foundation; and World Beyond War.

Coalition, c/o WALL, POB 42-7237, San Francisco, CA 94142; warandlaw@yahoo.com;
www.warandlaw.org; (415) 948-9616 or (510) 909-6272, Library: (415) 557-4400